Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the chain of life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of heart or lungs liver or heart or lungs, liver or kidneys, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutri-tion, the result of disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases of the stomach and its allied the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

and nutrition, are cured also.

"I was in poor health when I commenced taking Dector Fierce's medicines," writes Mr. Elmer Lawier, of Volga, Jefferson Co., Ind. "I had stomach kidney, heart, and lung troubles. Was not able to do any work. I had a severe cough and hemorrhage of the lungs, but after using your medicine a while I commenced to gain in strength and fiesh, and stopped coughing right away. Took about six bottles of Golden Medical Discovery." I feel like a different person. I gladly recommend your medicine to all sufferers, for I know it cured me." The use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will cure that foul breath.

ing and tragic nature occurred near Elizabethton, in Carter county, East Tennessee, about noon yesterday. Frank Kidwell, a reckless young man, who had repeatedly but unsuccessfully sought the love of Miss Ada Thompson, a pretty 16-year-old girl, shot ber four times with a revolver, twice in the four times with a revolver, twice in the breast, once in the shoulder and once through the right hand. He then turned the revolver upon himself and fired two shots, either of which would have killed him. There were evidences of a desperate struggle on the part of Miss Thompson to save her life, and it was this that caused her to receive one shot through the hand. The tracedy was enseted in a lonely The tragedy was enseted in a lonely place of woodland and there were no witnesses. Mits Thompson, who was the daughter of Samuel Thompson, of Waisugs, Tenn., left her father's home early yesterday morning for the public school, two miles distant, where she had arranged to spend the day as a visitor, At about 11 o'clock young Kidweli appeared at the schoolhouse door and called for Miss Thompson, stating to the teacher that the girl's father had sent for her to come home. Miss Thompson left the schoolroom at once Thompson left the schoolroom at once and she and Kidwell were soon walking away together. Kidwell was overneard to resume his love-making and to ask the young girl to marry him Miss Thompson, who is said to have cared nothing for him, was heard to drimly refuse him. The two had not gone for autil the lonely spot was reached, where the disappointed young man murdered the girl he wanted to marry and killed himself. Kidwell who was 21 years old, was in the United States navy, it is said, until the Span-States pavy, it is said, until the Spanish war broke out, when, it is charged,

URGES IRELAND TO REVOLT .- A committee of Irishmen yesterday visited Major McBride, of the Transvasi Irish Brigade, at Paris, and presented to him 4 sword of honor and an address. Mr. O'Leary made the presentation on be-nalf of the deputation. Msjor McBride made a speech in which he said he hoped the next time he faced England it would be on English soil. Mr. Byan then read an address in Gaelic, and Mr. Barry, on behalf of the Irish of

Mr. Barry, on behalf of the Irieh of London, made a short speech. Replying to the latter, Major McBride said the greatest honor was the pressaid the greatest honor was the presence of Mr. O'Leary, in whom bursed the spirit which had animated Fitzgerald, Emmet, and Wolfe Tone. He denounced Parliamentarism and said intolerance had been carried to the extreme of crime. He reproached the physical force party. This party, be said, had been silent for twenty years, but it had been silent at Mr. Parnell's request that Parliamentarism be given request that Parliamentarism be given a chance. That had failed and now was the time for physical force to act.

the time for physical force to act.

The moment was auspicious, England was never weaker than now. The time has come when, in addition to calling for God's help, the Irish should help themselves. The Boers had shown the rotteness of the English army and the first trial would prove the rottenness of their navy. If the present generation of Irish passed without obtaining their independence they would stand convicted before posterity of being cowards and unworthy of their glorious ancestors. Emigration was yearly exhausting Ireland. This must be stopped, POISONED BY PAREGORIO.-Coroner Nevitt, of Washington, yesterday gave a certificate of death from accidental causes in the case of Wm. J. F gan, the two-and-a-balf-year-old child who died Sunday at the home of its parents, on the Broad Branch road, near Rock Creek Park, from paregoric poisoning.

The peculiar part of the case, from a medical point of view, is that the little one lived two days after drinking the deadly potion. Mrs. Fagan was on the lower floor of her home Friday caring for one of the other children, when little James came downstairs and said; "Mamma good, drink." The little fellow took her upstairs, where, lying on the floor, an empty paregoric bottle, which had contained an ounce of the liquid, told the story. Dr. Anthony M. Ray, of Tenleytown was called in and worked for two days over the

The child had been suffering from a cold for several days and the CONFECTIONER parents had been giving it Brown's mixture. Sunday evening Mr. Begler got the medicine, as he supposed, which was on the table in the room, and gave his infant a part of a teaspoonful. The little fellow played around for a while and then, getting sleepy, was put to bed. Several times during the night the mother was awakened by the baby moving, but attributed that to restlessness. Yesterday morning sne noticed a laudacum bettle on the table and the spoon lying beside it. The baby was dead,

A powerful engine can't be run with a weak boiler; and you can't expect to keep up the wear and strain of an active life with a weak stomach. Our boilers, or rather our stomachs, can't be replaced, and we cannot stop the human machinery while making repairs. But when the stomach is unable to digest enough food to keep the body strong, we can use such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.
